

MUNSON & McNAMARA.

123 and 125 MAIN STREET.

This will be a Great Week with Us.

Greatest Opening

—OF—

Fine Wraps!

Our Styles and Shapes are Entirely Different from Any Others, and Exclusively Ours.

GREAT SALE OF BLANKETS!

BEGINNING

Monday Morning.

MUNSON & McNAMARA.

Philadelphia Store

Corner Douglas av. and Market St.

SPECIAL -- SALE

THIS WEEK.

200 Pair all Wool
Scarlet Blankets at

$3.50 PER PAIR.

Worth Fully $5.

For This Week Only.

A. KATZ.

S. W. Corner Douglas Ave. and Market St.

SEISMIC DISTURBANCES

Severe Shocks of Earthquake Occur Along the Atlantic Coast.

The Worst Since the Memorable Shock of August 31st Last.

Buildings in Charleston Somewhat Damaged though No Lives are Reported Lost.

A Sensational Discovery in the County Clerk's Office at Greensburg, Kan.—The Clerk Gone.

A Kentucky Horse Beats the Tort Record, Making a Mile and a Quarter in 2:07 1-2.

Weather Report. WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 22, 10 a. m.—The following are the indications:

For Missouri: Fair weather, southerly winds; slightly cooler, followed by fair weather.

For Kansas: Fair weather, southerly winds, becoming variable, slightly cooler.

EARTHQUAKES

Again Occur Along the Atlantic Coast from Washington to Savannah.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 22.—The earthquake shock today appears to have been as severe in Charleston as in adjoining states of Georgia and North Carolina. Special dispatches have been received from all parts of this and neighboring states indicating that the seismic disturbances covered a larger area of country than any previous shocks. In Charleston and other points in South Carolina the shocks were enough to shake buildings, bring down loose plastering, and widen the cracks made in houses by previous shocks, but no loss of life is reported from any quarter, and no serious damage to property. The custom house here was badly shaken, the western wing of the building being cracked and the walls supporting the roof on the west gable way slightly.

The shock at 2:45 this afternoon is said to have lasted thirty seconds. If this time was correctly taken the shock this morning was twice as long. The waves moved from north to south. The shocks caused no interruption to business.

Baby Quakes.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 22.—There was a sharp earthquake here at 5:25 o'clock this morning. Its duration was about twelve seconds. Houses were shaken and windows rattled but no damage was done. The shake was sharp also at Summerville and was followed by several baby quakes, as they are called.

Telegraphic advices state that the shock was felt at Savannah, Augusta, Columbia, Orangeburg and other points in the state. While the recurrence of quakes is trying to women and children, it causes no interruption either in business or the work of repairing damages, which is progressing vigorously.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 22.—A distinct earthquake shock was felt here this morning about 4 o'clock.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Oct. 22.—There was a heavy earthquake shock here at 5:25 o'clock, lasting thirty seconds. It was preceded by a loud, continuous rumbling, which lasted until the quake passed off. Nearly everyone was awakened by the shock, which swayed buildings and rattled things lively. It was the heaviest shock felt since August 31.

WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 22.—Two distinct shocks of earthquake were felt here this morning about 5 o'clock. One was quite severe and shook houses and awoke many people. No damage reported.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 22.—A slight shock of earthquake was felt here at 7:10 o'clock this evening, lasting about five seconds. The vibrations were nearly north and south.

Augusta, Ga., Oct. 22.—Two severe shocks of earthquake were felt here today—one at 4:45 a. m. and one at 2:45 p. m.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 22.—There were two sharp shocks here at 2:45 this afternoon, with equal severity at Summerville, Columbia and Augusta.

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 22.—There were two distinct earthquake shocks here about 3 a. m. and 3 p. m.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Oct. 22.—Another severe earthquake shock, accompanied by loud detonations, has just occurred here, 2:45 p. m., shaking buildings for about six seconds. No damage.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 22.—Another distinct earthquake shock occurred this afternoon at a quarter to 2. No damage done.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 22.—A slight earthquake shock was felt here at 2:50 this evening. The tremor lasted but an instant, but was sufficiently strong to "tip" type on the composing stones in the fourth story of the Star office.

Relief for the Sufferers.

GALVESTON, Texas, Oct. 22.—Measures for the relief of the flood sufferers at Saline Pass and Johnson bayou have in no wise abated here. Subscriptions of Galveston now aggregate $7,500. Houston has sent several car loads of clothing and provisions and a couple of thousand dollars. The mayor of Beaumont has received a telegram from C. P. Huntington donating $1,000 on behalf of the Southern Pacific Railway company; also a telegram from Col. A. H. Bell, stating that President Cleveland has remitted to him a draft for $100 for the sufferers. It is estimated that altogether $10,000 has been subscribed, but it is confidently expected by the Galveston, Beaumont and Orange relief committees that this sum will be increased to nearly $20,000 within the next ten days.

The Messrs. Blaine.

BROWNVILLE, Pa., Oct. 22.—Hon. Jas. G. Blaine, accompanied by his two sons, devoted the day to visiting the scenes of his childhood. The party spent several hours in the old mansion where he was born, and also visited the graves of his parents and his sister in the old Catholic cemetery. This evening he spoke at an immense meeting held in the public square. The address was non-political and referred to a few points of history connected with the town and vicinity. Tomorrow morning the party will leave for Washington, Pa.

A High Old Sensation.

Special Dispatch to the Daily Eagle.

GREENSBURG, Kan., Oct. 22.—It will be remembered that there was a very hard fight between the Santa Fe railroad and the Rock Island railroad on the bond question in Kiowa county, both companies having their elections ordered, and both elections being in favor of the respective railroads.

On the day of the canvass of the vote the Rock Island company was on hand with its attorney and had its canvass of the vote and its subscription duly made. No one was present representing the Santa Fe railroad.

It is now ascertained that the county clerk had skipped and that all money relating to the Rock Island railroad election canvass and subscription is torn out of the county records, and the Santa Fe subscription appears at a prior time.

The people are very much agitated over this. Mr. Low has been written on the subject.

Episcopal Convention.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—The general convention of the Protestant Episcopal church resumed sitting this morning. The committee on general theological seminary reported very gratifying. Rev. Dr. Godwin presented two reports from the committee on canons. The first was on the report of the joint committee on marriage and divorce, and a message of the house of bishops on the same subject, with which the committee was unable to agree, either in whole or in part. The committee recommended that the house of deputies do not concur in the message from the house of bishops and recommended that marriages not be authorized which would be a violation of the divine law.

The report in its other features was the same as that presented by special committee early during the session. Placed on the calendar.

The report of the board of trustees of the American church building fund was read. It showed during the past year the trustees had granted loans to fifty-four churches and missions, in sums varying from $150 to $25,000. Total amount paid out during the year $25,000. The two houses then went into joint session as a board of missions.

Lutheran National Council.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—The national council of Lutherans organized today by electing Dr. Specht of Philadelphia president, and by electing both corresponding and recording secretaries in German, English and Swedish. Vice-presidents of the convention are the presidents of various Lutheran synods of the country. The work of the session began with a report of the committee on foreign missions.

A resolution was introduced asking the czar of Russia to grant the Lutherans of the Baltic provinces the same privileges they had under the czar's father. The resolution will be forwarded to the American minister at St. Petersburg.

Universalists Convention.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 22.—At the Universalist general convention at Akron today it was decided by a unanimous vote to engage in foreign missionary work, and at committee on foreign missions was appointed.

A resolution was adopted to use all funds subscribed for church extensions for the purpose instead of allowing the same to accumulate.

On the temperance question resolutions were adopted favoring united and earnest work against the demon of strong drink, declaring total abstinence to be the only cure for intemperance; that the entire suppression of the manufacture, importation and sale of intoxicating beverages is the goal we should work for and the boon we should demand of the state.

The Women Missionaries.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 22.—The National Christian Missionary convention adjourned at 5 o'clock this afternoon, to meet next October at Indianapolis. At the morning session it was decided to continue the cyclone year book, the price being fixed at 25 cents a copy. It was voted to continue and extend the mission work in Colorado, and the board was instructed to investigate the field of New Mexico. The foreign missionary society voted to discontinue the French mission at Paris. This subject provoked a lengthy discussion.

In the afternoon several addresses were made, including one by Mrs. L. A. Christian, a delegate from the W. C. T. U. in behalf of the work of that organization. Over $20,000 have been subscribed for various objects during the convention.

National W. C. T. U. Convention.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 22.—The national convention of the W. C. T. U. opened this morning. Miss Frances Willard presiding. The roll called showed nearly every delegate present, including a number from Canada. Mrs. Mary T. Willard, mother of the president, a lady 82 years old, occupied a place on the platform. The president announced a committee on credentials and then delivered her annual address.

The address of Miss Willard was an elegant plea for purity and temperance. It closes with a series of twenty-four resolutions, among which are the following: A system of township organization; an address to the K. of L. asking them to include total abstinence in their basis of membership; to send out circulars urging work in behalf of the White Cross movement; adding congress to pass the Blair bill; for the abolition of the prison chain gang; for the placing of women under women's care in all penal and philanthropic institutions; application to congress for a prohibitory amendment to the constitution; also one granting the ballot to women; urging the addition of a clause to the W. C. T. U. bylaws pledging the signers against the use of opium, and for the appointment of national lecturers.

Mrs. Margaret Bright Lucas, of England, Mrs. Youmans, of Canada, and Mrs. Pearson, of England, assured the convention of the hearty sympathy of their country women in the work.

While There's Life There's Hope.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—One of the counsel for the seven condemned anarchists stated today that another motion for a new trial would be called to the attention of Judge Gary on the ground of newly discovered evidence, which it is claimed show the instructions of the court were improper. It is held that the man who incited, by speech or writing, was held equally guilty with the actual perpetrator of the deed. He claimed that as the term has not expired the court can grant the motion.

Gerónimo Enroute.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 22.—A special to the Times-Democrat from San Antonio says: Gerónimo and his band under a heavy guard left this evening for Florida.

THE LITERARY EMBARGO

Established by Congressional Enactment Found to Need Explanation.

The Acting Secretary of the Treasury Notifies the Librarian

That Owners of Copyrights on Books Must File Certificates on Importation.

Mr. Chairman Randall of the Appropriations Committee of Congress will have the Committee

Meet at an Early Day and Perfect its Work Against the Assembling of Congress.

CAPITAL BUDGET.

THE PRESIDENT'S SELECTION.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—The president has selected N. L. Baugh, of Mississippi, for appointment as deputy fourth auditor of the treasury, vice Mr. Davis resigned.

EXPLANATORY.

The acting secretary of the treasury has written to Mr. A. R. Spofford, librarian of congress, in explanation of the recent circular in regard to detention for forfeiture of books by customs officers when the same are imported into the United States with a list of all books now copyrighted and owned by any author thereof, or by his or her assigns.

A STITCH IN TIME.

The clerk of the house committee on appropriations is about to send out notices to members of the committee requesting their attendance at a meeting to be held in this city on November 22, next.

Session of the chairman (Randall) to have appropriation bills entrusted to the committee ready for action by the house soon after it assembles.

ANOTHER APACHE CHIEF CAUGHT.

The following telegram from Gen. Miles dated Ft. Apache, Arizona, Oct. 9, has been transmitted by General Howard to the war department: A detachment under Capt. Cooper, Tenth cavalry, has just arrived at the post, having captured Mangus and his whole party, consisting of Mangus, twenty-nine squaws and five children. Twenty-nine mules and five ponies were also brought in. (Signed.) VIELE, Captain Commanding.

THE NEW SILVER CERTIFICATES.

It is estimated at the treasury department that the ultimate issue of the new one and two-dollar silver certificates may aggregate fifty million dollars, and the five-dollar silver certificates sixty million dollars.

ANOTHER EXPLANATION.

Gen. Hazen, when asked by a reporter this evening regarding disallowances by the second comptroller of the great army account, said: The published announcement of the million-dollar allowance is very misleading, and the statement made by the second comptroller that Capt. Mills and Lieut. Craig were not bonded is incorrect. A fair statement would have included the fact that these disallowances were only made upon alleged informalities, and that these expenditures are based upon orders of the secretary of war upon precedent officers and the approval and settlement of these accounts had been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that he claimed that a half million dollars had been misplaced. To these facts he replied that the copies were necessary for the accounting officers to audit. But this was not the reason of all the eight great departments because of the light great departments have been made previously by the treasury department. The question of copies of telegrams not being filed with the great army account, referring to the portion of the army copies of telegrams should be accounted accounts, erroneously assumed that it pertained to the signal service, when in fact it did not and never had done so, and his whole claim now rests on an apparent error for it has been swept away. It was on this alone that